

HOW TO FIND US

When driving from the west on the M40: leave the motorway at Junction 4 and take the A404 towards Maidenhead. After 3 miles you will see a slip road towards Bourne End – the A4155. Take this road and stay on it to Bourne End, then take the A4094, go over the bridge at Cookham and keep driving towards Maidenhead. Whitebrook Park estate entrance is on your left approximately 1 mile after leaving Cookham.

When driving from London on the M40: leave the motorway at Junction 3 and take the A4094 through Woburn, Bourne End and Cookham and keep driving towards Maidenhead. Whitebrook Park estate entrance is on your left approximately 1 mile after leaving Cookham.

When driving from the west on the M4: leave the motorway at Junction 8/9 and take the A308(M) towards the centre of Maidenhead. Stay on this road, which passes the railway station, until you come to a roundabout on the A4. Turn right at this roundabout and continue straight across two more roundabouts until you see Maidenhead Bridge (a Texaco garage is on the left). Turn left up Ray Mead Road and follow the road alongside the river for 1.6 miles, passing Boulders Lock on your right. Whitebrook Park estate entrance is on your right shortly after you pass Battlemead Close.

When driving from London on the M4: leave the motorway at Junction 7 and take the A4 towards Maidenhead. Stay on this road, until you go over Maidenhead Bridge. At the roundabout turn right up Ray Mead Road past a Texaco garage and follow the road alongside the river for 1.6 miles, passing Boulders Lock on your right. Whitebrook Park estate entrance is on your right shortly after you pass Battlemead Close.

As soon as you enter the Whitebrook Park estate, turn directly right and you will see Beech House straight ahead of you. Drive into the car park which is to the left of the building.
